The quilts were fabulous, colorful, and interesting! I enjoyed our special exhibits particularly seeing Red and White Stitched Together and Ruby Celebration.

Congratulations to the ribbon winners! The full list will be on our website, <http://www.mainequilts.org>. We are working on pictures to be posted in a couple weeks and on Face book.

Thank you all for volunteering, enjoying the learning opportunities with our teachers, spending your money with our vendors, and supporting the various fundraisers.

Thank you to the chairpersons and the hours spent organizing and preparing your parts for the show.

Working on Maine Quilts 2018 already! “Bee Sew Inspired” is our Challenge theme. If you would like to join us as a Chairperson let me know. We can talk about what is available. Come join us and be part of this PTQG event.
