

Addendum to Contract # 100625 Between Tina Mann and The Pine State Quilters Guild of Maine And Notch Above Tours

Day One, Friday, June 25

5:45 am: Depart Bangor (Dysart's Truck Stop)

7:30 am: Depart Augusta (Turnpike Mall)

8:30 am: Depart Portland (Marginal Way Park and Ride)

With a rest/fast food stop along the way, you will arrive at the Vermont Quilt Festival early afternoon. Enjoy the afternoon visiting New England's Oldest and Largest Annual Quilt Festival.

When the Festival closes for the day, check in to your hotel, The Hampton Inn. There will be time to relax and refresh before dinner.

This evening enjoy dining in a casual atmosphere at a "local's favorite restaurant. Return to the hotel after dinner.

Day Two, Saturday, June 26

Savor a hearty breakfast in the hotel to fortify you for a full day at the Festival. You will discover hundreds of quilts, over 75 vendors, demonstrations, lectures, exhibits and the fabulous retail area tempting you with new products and ideas. Enjoy lunch on your own at the Festival.

Return to your hotel after the show. Refresh with a swim in the indoor pool or just sit back and relax before departing for dinner. The Shanty Restaurant, located on the shores of Lake Champlain specializes in New England fare and hospitality galore.

Day Three, Sunday, June 27

Following a farewell breakfast in the hotel prepare to check out of your room for the return trip to Maine. Don't despair; the fun is not over yet!

Depart the hotel and travel a short distance into the historic Village of Shelburne to the Shelburne Museum. Discover treasures from America's past at the Shelburne Museum, described as one of the world's great museums of American folk art, artifacts and architecture. The Museum's founder, Electra Havemeyer Webb, was a pioneer collector of Americana and American folk art. Explore 37 exhibit buildings, stroll through 45 scenic acres, and discover 80,000 pieces of Americana including the most important collection of wildfowl decoys in the world, an outstanding collection of quilts, coverlets, and hooked rugs and over 200 horse drawn vehicles. See the 220-foot side-wheel steamboat, the Ticonderoga that is a National Historic Landmark. Have lunch on your own at the museum's concessions.

At approximately 2:00 pm depart the museum for your return trip to Maine. With a rest/fast food dinner stop along the way, your return schedule is estimated below:

7:00 pm: Arrive Portland

8:00 pm: Arrive Augusta

9:30 pm: Arrive Bangor

824 West Lakeshore Drive, Suite 3, Colchester, VT 05446 802-881-0661
Copyright2009NotchAboveTours, Inc.